

Connect to Care: Recession Assistance

We are here to help the Jewish community through this tough time.

If you have lost your job or income due to the current economic downturn, we can help you...

- navigate your personal financial problems
- deal with housing foreclosure concerns
- maximize your job search and career decisions
- get information and legal consultations about foreclosure, bankruptcy and credit restructuring

If you or someone you know is now struggling with one or more of these complicated issues due to the recession, please call us at (718) 646-1444 ext. 328 (Irina) or 359 (Lana).

All services are free and completely confidential.

Funding for our Connect to Care services is provided through UJA Federation of NY
